 - j. The following disclaimer will be printed in each publication with advertising: "Colorado AAUW will not be held responsible for the quality or safety of goods and/or services advertised herein."
 - k. The executive committee will evaluate, update, and recommend policies concerning advertising.

N. MEMBERSHIP.

1. Refer to Bylaws, Colorado AAUW, Article V.
2. The vice president for membership will inform branches of members-at-large living in the branch area.
3. Members may hold dual membership by payment of branch dues in more than one branch. A dual member has the following privileges and restrictions:
 - a. A dual member is entitled to all branch privileges and is entitled to vote on all questions in both the branch where the regular membership is held and in the dual branch.
 - b. A dual member is entitled to hold the office of president only in the branch where the regular membership is recorded.
 - c. A dual member is entitled to hold any other office in the branch where the regular membership is recorded and in the dual branch unless branch bylaws provide otherwise.
 - d. A dual member may serve as a delegate or alternate to the Association convention only from the branch in which the Association membership is recorded.
 - e. A dual member in more than one branch in the same state may serve as a delegate or alternate to the state convention only from the branch in which the member has paid state dues.
 - f. A dual member in branch(es) in more than one state may serve as a delegate or alternate to state conventions in any state to which the member has paid state dues.
4. Instances of persons who claim membership in AAUW but are not members of AAUW shall be reported to the vice president for membership who will consult with the president regarding appropriate action by AAUW.

O. DUES.

1. Refer to Bylaws, Colorado AAUW Article VI.
2. Each branch shall pay annual state dues of $10.00 for each member and associate member, excepting those members whose dues are paid directly to the Association. Each branch shall pay annual state dues of $3.00 for each student affiliate member.

3. Dues for new members joining after January 1 and before March 15 shall be one half of the annual amount.

4. Dues collected by the Association from Association-recruited members for distribution to the state and the branch shall be handled as follows:

- a. The state shall retain the amount of current state dues.
- b. Any excess shall be held in a separate income category.
- c. When an Association-recruited member joins a branch, that branch may request the branch portion dues for that member. The request shall be sent to the state treasurer who shall make payment to the branch within thirty days.
- d. After one year any funds remaining in this income account shall become part of the state operating funds.

P. RELEASE OF MAILING LIST.

1. The state will not release branch mailing lists.

2. The roster of the board of directors may be released, subject to the following restrictions, on the recommendation of the president in consultation with the public policy director.

- a. The purposes for which the list is released must be compatible with the goals, purposes and policies of AAUW.
- b. The roster will not be released for the purpose of direct mailing advertising or any other potential revenue source.
- c. The roster will not be released to any candidates for public office.

Q. INTERBRANCH COUNCIL.

1. Branches may form interbranch councils.

2. The operating rules or guidelines for each interbranch council will be filed with the executive committee, the director of public policy, the bylaws chair, and any other person designated by the president.

R. RESOLUTIONS.

1. No resolution shall be in conflict with the bylaws, programs or focus of AAUW.
2. A resolution shall be adopted by a three fourths vote of the state board of directors or of the voting delegates to the state convention. Advance notice is not required.
3. After adoption, a resolution cannot be modified during the same session in which it was adopted. A resolution can be suspended, modified or rescinded in any future session of the same group which originally adopted the resolution.
4. The secretary will maintain a list, in addition to minutes, of all resolutions adopted by the state. The resolutions list will show all subsequent action on each resolution.
5. The president will appoint a resolutions committee that will report in writing of any resolutions that should be retired with rationale for retirement. With approval of the executive committee, a motion for retirement will be presented to the body which originally adopted the resolution. Retirement of a resolution will be duly noted in the resolutions list but it will remain in the list as historic record.

S. ARCHIVES. The Archives for Colorado AAUW will be placed with the Auraria Library in Denver.

T. AMENDMENTS.

1. These operating policies may be amended at a regular meeting of the board of directors by a two-thirds vote provided notice of said amendment has been given in writing to each member of the board at least thirty days prior to the meeting at which it is to be voted upon.
2. Without thirty days' written notice, these operating policies may be amended at a regular meeting by a two-thirds vote provided there is intervening business between presentation of an amendment and voting thereon.
